Soldier: a person enlisted in the regiment to fight under arms. Every new member begins as a private. The 1NJ allows women to reenact as a soldier – however they must be able to use the preferred firelock, and participate in all aspects and activities while appearing as an 18th c man.

Civilian Follower/On the Army's Strength: Continental forces were supported by civilian women and men who were soldiers' families and others providing services such as washing, nursing, sutlery (selling goods) and more for soldiers.

Musician: musicians, usually fife and drum, who accompanied the army.
